

Annual VLIZ Bachelor Thesis Award Marine Sciences 2019

REGULATIONS

The Annual VLIZ Bachelor Thesis Award aims at recognizing and rewarding the work of meritorious young marine researchers. This way, VLIZ hopes to encourage them to continue to provide high-quality scientific contributions in the future, and to promote marine scientific research in Flanders.

- Art. 1 Every year, the Flanders Marine Institute (VLIZ) awards a scientific prize to a professional bachelor thesis. Both fundamental and applied research in all branches of marine sciences is taken into consideration.
- Art. 2 The prize amounts to 500 EUR and is reserved to a young researcher who graduated (in the past two years) from a Flemish college, or to a Flemish young researcher who graduated (in the past two years) from an international educational institution.
- Art. 3 A jury installed by the Board of Directors of VLIZ - upon proposal of the Scientific Committee - will evaluate the contributions submitted. The jury reserves the right to contact the thesis promotor(s) to obtain more information on the submitted thesis.
- The jury advises the Board of Directors, who grants the award. If none of the submitted theses are deemed to be acceptable, the Board can decide not to attribute the award and to add the prize money to the next edition of the Bachelor Thesis Award.
- Art. 4 Candidacies of former laureates of the VLIZ Bachelor Thesis Award are not admissible.
- Art. 5 Candidates cannot submit the same contribution more than once for the VLIZ Bachelor Thesis Award.
- Art. 6 To be taken into consideration all candidates must provide the following documents to VLIZ by Tuesday 31 December 2019 at the latest:
- ▶ Online: registration.vliz.be/awards2019
 - a pdf-version of the thesis;
 - the curriculum vitae of the author.
 - ▶ By post:
 - a print copy of the thesis (in Dutch or English).
- Art. 7 The award will be granted in January 2020. All candidates will be notified of the jury's decision prior to 15 February 2020.
- Art. 8 The award ceremony will take place at the VLIZ Marine Science Day 2020, on Wednesday 18 March 2020 at De Grote Post in Oostende (date and location with reservation to possible changes). The laureate will present the prize-winning contribution at the meeting.

- Art. 9 VLIZ has the right to publish a synthesis of the award-winning thesis and to announce this publication on its different media, provided that the author's name and function are mentioned.
- Art. 10 VLIZ has the right to deposit all submitted contributions in its marine scientific library. In consultation with the author, VLIZ can include a summary of the thesis in one of its publications.
- Art. 11 All interested candidates can request a free individual membership of VLIZ for the year 2019.
- Art. 12 Any problems or disputes that possibly may arise with regard to participating in and granting of the VLIZ Bachelor Thesis Award will be settled by the Board of Directors. The candidates have no recourse against its decision and are not entitled to any remuneration.
- Art. 13 All participants must agree upon these regulations.
